

On my last vacation my sister and I drove to Colorado just the two of us to stay with my aunt Lucy and Uncle Drew. When we stayed in Colorado we went to Breckenridge and Copper Mountain to snowboard. This year my uncle taught me to do tricks off of the half pipes. We also attended one of the pro hockey games of the year (and yes we won by the way). After the hockey game we proceeded to the ESPN Game Center for supper and some more fun and games. The next two days were also fun; we went to a car race and played street hockey with the boys next door. Then the boys took us to a drive in movie where we watched 27 dresses. I would have to say that it was one of my favorite vacations that I have had so far!
