

I believe my last vacation was to the Great Wolf Lodge. To get there we traveled by car to a big town in Kansas, I think Kansas City, to stay in the Great Wolf Lodge for the 4th of July. With me on the trip was my friend Amanda, my mom, Dave, and my little brother Hunter.

While I was there Amanda and I had fun in the arcade, winning lots of little prizes and swimming in the grand pool area they had in the Hotel. In the pool area there was a rock climbing activity that went up 20 feet and I was able to try it out twice. I didn't make it to the way top either times, not finding enough holes in the wall to pull myself up.

Sadly, the trip ended badly when both my friend Amanda and I got food poisoning from Perkins when we ate there for breakfast and we went home feeling really sick. Besides the bad ending, the trip was fun and the Great Wolf Lodge was a wonderful place to stay.
