

My last family vacation was like 2 years ago. We went to Denver, Colorado. We went there to go shopping, go to the museum, and go white water rafting. I went with my father, mother, and two older brothers.

First, I went to the Denver's mall the first day. That was after we spent the night in Denver. I bought a lot of clothes mostly for the up coming school year. I also bought new clothes to go white water rafting. I had to buy a new swim suit so that we could go white water rafting because I left my at home. That was pretty genius of me.

Then we went to the museum because my oldest brother Josh wanted to go. The museum was very interesting. We saw bones of whales, people, and other animals. My favorite part was when we went to the animal part and we got to see were certain kinds of animals live and what animals are extinct.

Last, we went white water rafting. We had to get up at like 6 in the morning, so that we could get to the rafting place on time. It took a long time to get ready to go white water rafting you had to have; swimsuit, sunglasses, sunscreen, shoes, life jacket, and boots. The trip to go down the river took a full day. When it was lunch time the leaders brought sandwiches, drinks, and salads. The trip was so much fun. I would go again if I had another chance to.

In conclusion, my last family vacation was like 2 years ago. We went to Denver, Colorado. We went there to go shopping, go to the museum, and go white water rafting. I went with my father, mother, and two older brothers. If we went again I would go to the zoo instead of the museum.
